Melissa Carlson, CPA promoted to Manager at CK&Co., P.L.L.P.

St. Louis Park, MN (November 12, 2010) – Melissa Carlson, CPA has been promoted to the position of Manager at Cummings, Keegan & Co., P.L.L.P. (CK&Co.). As we continuously assist our clients to achieve their growth strategies, we are proud to have people like Melissa leading the way.

Melissa works with a variety of closely-held businesses and not-for-profit organizations. She grew up in a family-owned business and is empathetic to their concerns. Clients speak highly of her concise communication skills, efficient production, and ability to clearly communicate results to a Board of Directors.

A native of Karlstad, Minnesota, she is the daughter of Pat and Jeanne Collins. Melissa Carlson joined CK&Co. in 1998 after graduating from Bemidji State University. Very active in the local community, Melissa is a member on the Majestic Oaks/DKM Community Foundation Board of Directors. She also plays in golf, volleyball, and basketball leagues. Most importantly, she enjoys spending time with her husband and two boys.

Cummings, Keegan & Co., P.L.L.P., is a Minnesota-based CPA firm with offices in St. Louis Park and Apple Valley. Founded in 1956, CK&Co. provides a complete range of tax, accounting and business management needs for privately-held businesses, not-for-profit clients, and individuals. The firm serves as strategic planners, consultants, and business advisors to assist the client's growth and success.
