Certified Public Accountants and Business Advisors

Bill Jacob, CPA

Partner

“I enjoy showing people the real results of our work, including how we saved them money, found errors in past returns, or helped create a business succession plan.”

Bill’s accounting specialty is focused on tax planning and preparation for small businesses and individuals. He has a particular interest in helping family-owned businesses prepare for the future through succession planning strategies.

Bill has always enjoyed math and numbers and especially enjoys talking with business owners about how the numbers impact their business goals. Bill is resourceful and efficient. Clients appreciate his kind, thoughtful, and helpful approach. As a Partner, Bill is involved in the firm’s operations and production activities.

Bill and his family enjoy outdoor activities - camping, bike riding, and going to parks. Beyond that, he loves to play golf and coach his kids’ baseballs team.
