Bill Jacob, CPA

Partner

Bill's accounting career has focused on tax planning and preparation for small businesses and individuals. He has a particular interest in helping family-owned businesses prepare for the future through succession planning services.

Bill is resourceful and efficient. He has always enjoyed math and numbers, so it's natural he felt that accounting was a good use of those skills. Clients appreciate his kind, thoughtful, and helpful approach. As a Partner, Bill is involved in the firm's operations and production activities.

A native to the Twin Cities area, Bill and his family enjoy outdoor activities - camping, bike riding, and going to parks. Beyond that, golf is his game.
