“I like the auditing process because I enjoy helping clients improve their processes, gain efficiencies, and reduce errors.”

A 1985 graduate of the University of Minnesota, Debra has been employed in the field of public accounting since that time. She is recognized for her expertise in the field of auditing, especially those that are highly technical and complex. Debra has been active on the MNCPA Ethics Committee for 13 years and serves as the 2011 Committee Chair.

Debra’s client experience includes audits and reviews for retail, self-insured organizations and retirement and other benefit plans. She is in charge of the Firm’s quality control in the accounting and auditing area.

Debra became interested in small business accounting as a child, watching her parents own three businesses. She understands business processes and clients welcome her ability to educate staff and increase their skills and abilities.

Outside of work, Debra enjoys gardening, researching her family history, and singing. She cantors at her church and has had the opportunity to sing at Carnegie Hall in New York and the Cathedral of Notre Dame in Paris.
