

"When a client says 'Thank You' because I've helped them solve a problem with their financial situation, it reminds me every day why I love this business. I enjoy working with our clients and our people, building long-term relationships far beyond the office walls."

Education

Academy of Accountancy,
Minneapolis – MN, 1974

Years with CK&Co.

1974 – Joined in June

Affiliations

American Institute of Certified
Public Accountants
Minnesota Society of Certified
Public Accountants
Optimist Club of Edina

Jeff Emerick, CPA

Administrative Partner

Jeff concentrates in the area of income tax, including the areas of real estate, financial planning, retirement plans and fringe benefits. Throughout his 35-year career, he has served on committees for numerous organizations. As the Administrative Partner, Jeff manages the firm's personnel and growth strategies.

The accounting regulations and codes are a perfect match for Jeff. The combination of his big-picture planning skills, coupled with his curiosity for details, allow him to handle a variety of accounting challenges. With his knack for remembering details, both numbers and people, it is evident why Jeff has built client relationships lasting nearly 35 years.

Jeff loves anything that offers a mental challenge...sports, games, puzzles, mysteries, all of the above. Additionally, he loves spending time with his family, especially the grandkids.