Peter Maddalena, CPA

Partner

“I like accounting because I enjoy helping people solve problems. The clients put tremendous trust in me to handle their financial concerns.”

Peter advises manufacturing clients, family-owned and privately-held businesses, and not-for-profit associations with all aspects of their growth. He is a key member of our audit and review team. He has experience preparing audits and reviews, advising on tax implications of business decisions, and tax planning.

Clients appreciate his organizational skills, genuine interest in their organization, and his effective communication style.

Growing up in a family-owned business, Peter understands the challenges faced by his clients in their daily operations.

In 2010, Peter was named Partner at CK&Co. A native Canadian, he attended the University of Ottawa and graduated in 1993. He joined CK&Co. in 2001.

Peter is a huge hockey fan, enjoys golf and outdoor activities. He also enjoys spending time with his wife and two daughters. Peter is a member of the Lake Minnetonka-Excelsior Rotary Club.
