Ryan Van De Wynkel, CPA

Senior Accountant

“I look forward to the client’s phone calls and emails, knowing that I can be their resource for quick answers, accurate advice, and attentive service.”

Ryan works with a variety of individuals and privately-held businesses, helping them with accounting, bookkeeping, and tax preparation.

An entrepreneur at heart, Ryan understands that current, accurate financial data is critical to a successful business. Ryan has particular interest in tax law changes that affect our clients and is well-versed in the changing regulations.

As a new dad, Ryan spends a lot of time with his wife, son and new daughter. He also manages several properties throughout the Twin Cities metro area. On any given fall Monday, you’ll be able to discuss the previous weekend football scores, as he is an avid fan of football, especially the Minnesota Vikings.

Ryan is an active member of the TwinWest Chamber of Commerce.
