

Tim Kenyon, CPA

Tax Partner

“Through the tax and estate planning process, I’m trusted with my clients’ personal stories. This trust motivates me to always find the right solutions for each client.”

Tim is our tax expert, specializing in the areas of tax planning, tax compliance, and estate planning for corporations, closely-held businesses, individuals, and partnerships. He has experience in multi-state filings, international, manufacturing, retail industries and estate preservation planning. Also specializing in mergers and acquisitions, Tim enjoys the consulting areas of business succession planning, valuations and entity reorganizations.

Tim is a problem solver. If your company operates in multiple states, internationally, or has complex structure, you can feel confident that Tim will find the right answers to your questions.

As Tax Partner, Tim also updates our staff on the newest changes in tax regulations. He enjoys coaching and mentoring staff to understand how these changes will impact our clients.

In his spare time, Tim enjoys a variety of outdoor and sports activities. He volunteers extensively with the Courage Center and is still a big Timberwolves fan.
