

On December 1, 2011, I merged my CPA practice, including my clients, into the firm Cummings, Keegan & Co., P.L.L.P. (CK&Co.). You will now find my office located in St. Louis Park.

I look forward to the new opportunities this merger provides to you and me:

- Access to talented resources in tax, auditing, and accounting
- Access to business consulting expertise, including valuations, succession planning, management consulting, and more
- Professional development opportunities, and
- Client-tailored communications
